Many thanks for making yesterday such a great event for us, our families and friends. It is a special venue, you made us feel very welcome, and we always felt everything was under control. The reception went just as we planned it, with everybody having a fun time and no dramas (except when I had to rush out to move my mother-in-law's car away from the rising tide – but that obviously had nothing to do with you!).

The rowing club is such a great venue and it looked fabulous yesterday, even in the rain. Thank you for organising everything so beautifully (right down to the rainbow after lunch!).
